EUGENE PRIDONOFF

Professor of Piano and Artist-in Residence at UC-CCM since 1980, Eugene Pridonoff has maintained an international performing and teaching career for over four decades. A laureate in the Leventritt, Montreal, Brazil, and Tchaikowsky competitions, he was appointed to the piano faculty of Temple University in 1965. He graduated from the Curtis Institute of Music where his teachers were Rudolf Serkin and Mieczyslaw Horszowski, after studying with Lillian Steuber (herself a student of Josef and Rosina Lhevinne, Egon Petri, Harold Bauer, and Emil von Sauer) for six years.

He has performed with orchestras throughout the world, including the New York Philharmonic, Philadelphia Orchestra, Los Angeles Philharmonic, National Symphony Orchestra, Cincinnati Symphony, Rochester Philharmonic, Central Opera Orchestra of Beijing, and the San Salvador Symphony Orchestra, under such conductors as Seiji Ozawa, Izler Solomon, Andre Kostelanetz, Michael Gielen, Frederic Prausnitz,

Nicholas Harsanyi, Howard Mitchell, John Barnett, Gerhard Samuel, William Smith and Lawrence Leighton Smith. He has also given solo and duo recitals, as well as master classes throughout North, Central, and South America, Russia, China, Korea, Japan, Taiwan, Australia, Barcelona, Belgium, Czech Republic, and Italy. Twice yearly, Eugene Pridonoff performs and is in residence at the Ichionkai School in Tokyo, Japan, and in the summers performs and teaches at the Amalfi Coast Music Festival in Italy, and International Piano Week of Belgium.

His former students hold collegiate teaching positions throughout the world and have been first-place winners in the Horowitz, Missouri Southern, American Pianists Association, Shreveport Wideman, and Midland-Odesa competitions. In March of 2005, he and his wife Elizabeth Pridonoff were interviewed and featured on the cover of Clavier Magazine.

In 1982 Eugene and Elizabeth Pridonoff (also Professor of Piano at CCM) formed the Pridonoff Duo and were appointed Duo-in-Residence at UC-CCM in 1986. That same year they gave their Tully Hall and Kennedy Center debuts. Eugene Pridonoff has recorded for the Vienna Modern Masters label and is a Steinway Artist.
