

Preservation Lab - Examination and Treatment Report

Database ID	Treatment ID	Item Record #	Date received in Pres.	Conservator
1902	291	i7981217x	11/19/2018	Kasie Janssen, supervised by Ashleigh Schiesz

Technicians Jessica Ebert

Department	Call Number	Date Returned to Origin
CECH Library	PE1117 .J72

Title
The Jones fifth reader

Author Jones, Lewis Henry

DESCRIPTION:

General Remarks

2019 Adopt a Book: This is an early 20th century textbook written for a 6 - 8th grade audience. The cloth covered publisher's binding is decorated in architectural ornamentation printed in red and blue. The cover's spine and edges are heavily worn with areas of loss. Conservation staff will treat the binding to consolidate the edges of the covers and fill losses in the spine. The binding will be wrapped in a protective jacket to prevent future wear and stored in an archival corrugated clamshell enclosure.

Binding

This is an early 20th century textbook with a cloth covered publisher's binding. The binding is decorated in architectural ornamentation printed in red and blue. The title, "The Jones Fifth Reader" is printed on the front cover and on the spine. The binding measures 18.9 centimeters high, 14.8 centimeters wide, by 3.4 centimeters deep.

Textblock

The textblock consists of 31 gatherings with 4 folios per gathering. There are single folio end sheets at the front and back of the textblock. The textblock is sewn without supports. There are cloth endbands adhered to the head and tail. The textblock measures 18.4 centimeters high, 13.8 centimeters wide, by 2.9 centimeters deep.

Primary Support

The primary support is a light beige wove paper.

Medium

The medium throughout the textblock is black printer's ink. There are graphite inscriptions on the front and back endsheets, and the recto of page 3. There are library stamps of red ink on the front flyleaf. There are library stamps of black ink on the title page, page 33, and the back pastedown.

Attachments| Inserts

There is a barcode, call number label, a small round blue sticker, and pressure sensitive tape applied to the front cover.

Housing

N/A

