Conservator's Note

These are four loose parchment sheets containing musical liturgical notation. They were received by the Preservation Lab wrapped in discolored tissue paper and in need of housing.

For long-term storage, the leaves were grouped together in a polyester film L-sleeve with a Rising mat board archival support. The sleeved materials were stored in an archival blue corrugated board portfolio constructed out of Tyvek and Jade 403 PVA. The portfolio was secured with cloth cotton ties that were laced into the portfolio.
