Mr. J. B. McNamara,

Dear Friend McNamara:

Just a note to let you know that I have your good letter of January 7th. You have doubtless already received my letter thanking you for the 6 3/4 x 9 cover plate which you sent, and which is now propped up on my desk looking at me.

Don't you worry about what you write not being understood, and you are deceiving yourself if you think you are a poor letter writer. Any man who has something to say, and says it straight from the shoulder, is a good writer. Would that there were more of this tribe in the editorial profession!

With sincerest regards,

As ever yours,
