Dear J. B.-

I had dinner with Clarence Darrow the other evening and he told me powerful good news regarding Lincoln Steffens' progress on the case. I cannot say more at present, but it made me happy to hear what has already been accomplished.

I trust the fight is about won, and I know that your supply of good cheer is always equal to the occasion. We will hang out the flag here when you and Matt emerge. I don't know anything about his case, but I will gladly do anything possible to help him out, too.

With loyal regards.

Fraternally yours,
