Dear J. B. -

I haven't seen your friend for a couple of weeks. But when I did see him he seemed to be in good spirits, and did not say anything to indicate that there was anything wrong.

I shall be glad to do anything I can for him at any time.

I liked your comment on Michael Gold. I read his article at L's house on Friday. L. takes it humorously. His book is going very well indeed.

I enjoyed your letter to Harcourt and will send it on to L.

My kindest to our friends.

Sincerely,

Herbert Miller
