MY VERY DEAR J.B.:--

MAY 10, 1939

THERE IS ONLY TIME TO DASH OFF A WEE NOTE, FOR THE MOMENT, IN ANSWER TO YOUR NICE LETTER. WITHIN THE NEXT WEEK I WILL WRITE MORE IN DETAIL. HOWEVER, I DID NOT WANT TO KEEP YOU WAITING FOR ANY RESPONSE UNTIL THERE WAS MORE TIME TO WRITE. I DELIVERED YOUR SEVERAL MESSAGES IN THE LAST LETTER, AND WILL SEND WORD TO PETERSON IN THE MORNING. AGNES IS SO CONCERNED ABOUT YOU, AND I AM SO ANXIOUS TO BE ABLE TO TALK WITH YOU, WHICH IS SO MUCH MORE SATISFACTORY THAN TRYING TO FORMULATE IDEAS IN WORDS. THERE ARE TIMES WHEN IT PROVES ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE. YOUR NOTE INDICATES THAT THE THINGS HAVE BEEN FINALLY RECEIVED, WHICH WAS GOOD TO LEARN. I WAS A BIT WORRIED.

WE HAVE INFORMATION THAT A REQUEST MADE MIGHT BE GRANTED, BUT THAT YOU YOURSELF HAVE NOT PERSONALLY REQUESTED SAME. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT TO US, AND WILL YOU PLEASE HELP OUT AT THAT END BY REQUESTING THE TRANSFER? THE ATTITUDE SEEMS FAVORABLE. WILL YOU WRITE ME WHEN YOU PUT THROUGH THIS FORMALLY?

WITH A PROLETARIAN HANDCLASP, I AM

FRATERNALLY AND COMRADELY,

MARGARET
