

October 8, 1919

Copy.

My dear George:

Under separate cover

~~Enclosed~~ find copy of the circular that I spoke to you about recently. When it comes to hand drop me a line and say that "you are reading volume six of the report of the Industrial Relations Commission" and I will know that you have received it.

In my former note you did not follow my instructions as to the password; this is quite important. Not that there is anything out of the way but replies of this sort should not refer to letters or anything of that sort or they are liable to be held up and then we are in the dark at ~~the~~ this end. See the point? For that reason I am of the opinion that if some outside matter is selected to refer to in replying it is much better and answers the same purpose.

Retain the circular for future reference and for your own information. At some time in the future we may find it come in quite handy to send to W. J., Bob or some one of that sort. The same applies to any other little matter that I may send you. I assure you in advance there will not be very much for I am not much of a hand to pile up a lot of junk, for my experience has been that it is only a question of time until a housecleaning takes place and you throw practically all of it away. Let the words "big feed" be the password for this note; use them any way you have a mind; I will understand. In haste.

P.S. Circular is subject to amendment. After reading let me know what you think of it.

2 - 2 Sheets each - (Circulars.)