

San Quentin, California
November 22, 1920

Mr. George Healy
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear friend George:

In looking over my files I note that I have two letters from you that have not been answered but they are so old and there is so little here in the way of news that I hardly know what to say only to ask your indulgence for yet a little while and then I will be able to meet you in person and talk to you as I would like to and as long as I would like to, or perhaps I had better put that another way and say "as long as you will let me talk" for you may grow tired of my chatter. What think you?

At any rate I have a little job for you and now that we are having so many rainy days I thought that perhaps you could attend to it for me. You know that Thompson matter we discussed some time ago? Well, if you can get any sort of a line on it I wish that you would do so and then take a run over to see me and I will go into the matter with you further in person.

All O. K. at this end; nothing new or startling. Hope all goes well with you. We are fine and dandy.

Fraternally yours,