

San Quentin, California.

March 29, 1920

Copy

My dear Tom:

Just a thought that I overlooked when talking to you Saturday; it seems that one could talk all day and then overlook some point or other. Wish that you would try to attend to the few local matters that we spoke of before you leave for the East so that they would not be hanging fire until your return; also that you drop me a line by way of confirmation for my own satisfaction. Had a letter from Bob after you left Saturday to the effect that he had left Indiana and would go to either Cleveland or Cincinnati but if necessary it will be an easy matter for you to get in touch with him. Sherman was in Louisville a few days ago but the chances are that he will be back home by the time you reach the East and he will answer as well as Bob for the two items we discussed as to that particular quarter.

Fraternally,