My dear Tom:

Just a hurried line from S. Q. Are you still in the land of the living? I had expected to hear from you either directly or otherwise ere this but have not done so. Of course I figured that you were called out of town but when I heard from the letter that you wrote for me I & changed my mind. Have not heard from the records and the other matter as yet.

Have you called on Fred recently? If not I would suggest that you do so at your earliest convenience.

Nothing out of the ordinary at this end; trust all goes well with you. We are fine and dandy.

Faternally yours,
